INVITATION TO TUSCANY

One of the challenges of picking the perfect holiday villa is knowing where to find friendly, expert, local knowledge and advice. Invitation to Tuscany was started by the Wrightson family in 1982 and still does today so well what it has been doing for years, helping couples and families find the perfect place to stay and relax. Whether you're looking for a simple romantic hideaway or a luxurious renaissance villa, they can always provide expert local knowledge together with first-hand personal property advice. Still run by Daniel Wrightson, who grew up in Tuscany, all the properties are hand-picked and described in detail, so that you can rely on the information provided. In addition the free concierge service means that, should you wish to organise a winetasting day, or have cookery lessons in your holiday home, you only have to ask.

PALACIO DE LAS ESPECIAS

Palacio de las Especies is a small luxury hotel located in the heart of the Marrakech ancient medina. Dating from the 19th century, but refurbished throughout in 2012 and transformed into an elegant Marrakech colonial style boutique hotel, the 'Palacio' is a haven of peace combining the character and charm of an authentic luxury riad with all the creature comforts expected of modern design. You will be enchanted by the beautiful luxury rooms, by the refreshing cool and dazzling luminosity of the main patio or by the spacious sun-drenched terrace – and, of course, not to mention the culinary delights offered every night by the Riad kitchen and served in the romantic dining room or on the terrace. Certainly Palacio de las Especies is the perfect place for few days of rest and to welcome the good weather, after a long and cold winter.
